An exhibition of works by –

Sarah Fairchild ~ Paul Hamilton ~ Kaveri Raina ~ Carol Stewart ~ Sally Tharp

Since antiquity and before, artists and others have rendered the food they live off of and enjoy. Inspired by Ernest Hemingway’s Paris memoir, “A Moveable Feast,” five artists from Hammond Harkins Galleries continue this tradition of honoring the stuff of life and sustenance.

Opening Reception:
Friday, March 27 ~ 5 – 8 pm
On view: March 27 through May 3

Special event:
Gallery Talk with Shawnie Kelley on April 12 at 2:00 pm.
Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 7, at gallery@hammondharkins.com or at (614) 238-3000.

Kelley, co-owner of Wanderlust Tours and a regular contributor to Edible Columbus and The Seasoned Farmhouse, will talk on the history of food in art. Small edibles provided for this event by Julia Boyd, Pastry Chef at Alana’s Food and Wine.
